Working together to help with the cost of cancer

NHS Cumbria, Macmillan Cancer Support and the Citizens Advice service are working together to help with the cost of cancer.

NHS Cumbria NHS Cumbria is the county's primary care trust. It receives an annual budget from the Department of Health which is used by leading GPs representing each part of Cumbria to plan and pay for local NHS services. NHS Cumbria is funding the Citizens Advice service to help people with cancer access welfare benefit advice. www.cumbria.nhs.uk

citizens advice bureau The Citizens Advice service is an independent network of charities that helps people resolve their money, legal and other problems. We provide information and advice, and influence government and organisations to improve policies and laws. Our free advice is available in bureaux, by phone and email, in community venues, in people's homes and at www.adviceguide.org.uk

WE ARE MACMILLAN. CANCER SUPPORT Macmillan Cancer Support is a UK wide charity that helps people with cancer and their families. Macmillan is working in collaboration with the Citizens Advice service and the NHS to help people with cancer access welfare benefits advice. www.macmillan.org.uk
